

Jane Scarth House Romsey Cancer Support Centre 25th Anniversary Romsey Butterfly Trail

The Butterfly trail covers:

Bell Street

Dukes Mill

Tee Court

Palmerston Square

The Cornmarket

Church Street (to Abbey Walk)

The Hundred (to Palmerston St.)

Love Lane (to old Age UK shop)

Latimer Street (to Latimer Walk)

Latimer Walk

There are 25 butterflies to find. Walk round Romsey and find each butterfly's number, then write the name of the shop/business where you found it in the correct number square on the form. Once you have found as many as you can, post your entry in the Butterfly Post Box at Jane's in Latimer Street or email to newsletter@janescarthhouse.co.uk.

The trail runs from Saturday 24th October to Saturday 31st October inclusive. Entries to be returned by midnight on Saturday 31st October. All entries will go into a draw for a family trip to an ambulance station to spend a morning with a paramedic.

* The timing of the trip will depend upon South Central Ambulance Service operational needs and government guidelines.

Jane Scarth House provides free emotional and practical support to anyone whose life is affected by cancer. If you or someone you know would like more information visit www.janescarthhouse.co.uk or click the QR code.
